ASU LADY PURPLE FLASHERS

The Alcorn State University Lady Purple Flashers Flag Corp is an auxiliary group which has been an integral part of the university's marching band tradition since its founding in by Samuel S. Griffin in 1977. Under the visionary leadership of director of bands, Dr. Everson Martin, the Lady Purple Flashers have continually set the standard for excellence in performance, artistry, and showmanship on the field.

As a distinguished component of the Alcorn State University marching band, the Lady Purple Flashers have captivated audiences with their dynamic choreography and precision flag work. Their performances during halftime shows, parades, and special events have consistently showcased the group's dedication to precision and entertainment. Their commitment to upholding the highest standards of performance on the field has earned them a well-deserved reputation for excellence.

As they continue to uphold their tradition of excellence, the Lady Purple Flashers Flag Corp remains a symbol of grace, skill, and artistry within the Alcorn State University community and beyond. With a legacy rooted in decades of outstanding performances by way of precision drills, the Lady Purple Flashers are dedicated to inspiring, entertaining, and uplifting audiences through the power of music, precision drills, and pageantry.

ABOUT SOD

Heralded as the Showband from Southland, the story of the Alcorn State University band program dates back to 1885, giving light to its storied history.

Known today as the Sounds of Dyn-O-Mite, SOD is a world-renowned musical ensemble revered for its rich traditions, prowess in music performance, and legacy of showmanship and pride. The program consists of many subunits but is most known for the earthquaking marching band.

The unit has performed before crowds at Soldier Field in Chicago, the Astrodome in Houston, the Los Angeles Coliseum, Texas Stadium in Dallas, Milwaukee County Stadium, Philadelphia Stadium, LADD Stadium in Mobile, the Orange Bowl in Miami, the Superdome in New Orleans, the RCA Dome in Indianapolis, Giant Stadium in New Jersey, the Edward Jones Dome in St. Louis, and the Silverdome in Pontiac. In 1975, it was the first college band to perform in the Superdome. It has also performed during halftime for the New Orleans Saints, Atlanta Falcons, and Detroit Lions.

Most of the innovation and success of the Sounds of Dyn-O-Mite were seen under the leadership of the visionary former director of bands Samuel S. Griffin.

Griffin enjoyed a legendary career with the Alcorn State University Sounds of Dyn-O-Mite and formally retired as Director of Bands in December 2012. During his 46 years of service to the band and university, Mr. Griffin became a father figure to so many and truly made a positive impact on so many lives. The Legendary Band Director passed away on August 4, 2017, surrounded by his family.

In 2011, the university decided to begin a transition to a new era. Dr. Renardo Murray was named the new Marching Band Director on May 31, 2011, and led the band through a transformation period. Under the direction of Dr. Murray, the band experienced a reemergence in the HBCU band culture, rising to over 250+ members. The band was voted to participate in the Honda BOTB in 2013 and 2016 under his leadership.

During the fall of 2018, Dr. Everson Martin was named the Director of Bands and has continued the traditions of the Sounds of Dyn-O-Mite and reestablished the Lady Purple Flashers in 2019. Dr. Martin's progression and sustained success of the Sounds of Dyn-O-Mite bodes well for the future of the band as he works to establish his own legacy.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

What do I wear to auditions?

Wear clothing that allows you to move easily. Remember, this is an audition and you'll want to present yourself in the best possible manner. Don't cover yourself with excessive clothing or clothing that doesn't allow you to move comfortably. All black or black and white are customary audition colors.

Should I bring my own equipment to auditions?

We will provide equipment for the audition.

When do I find out the results of my audition?

Results are shared immediately after auditions or within 24 hours.

When does practice begin?

Practice begins during band camp in early August.

What is required on the video audition?

Videos should consist of a 60-90 second routine highlighting your flag corp skills skills. We want to see what you know, and where you are currently in your own training. The routine can be set to band music or the radio (clean) version of popular songs.

Are auditions open to my family and friends?

Auditions are closed to the public.

Are dance skills required to participate?

The Lady Purple Flashers is a precision flag corp, not a dance line. No dancing skills are required to make the team. Team members focus on skills aligned with twirling the flag, field show/drill formations and HBCU marching style.
